

Character Guide for the Sensory-Friendly Performance of Disney's The Lion King

This tool shows how characters from the animated film version are portrayed in the live stage version.

FILM

STAGE

Mufasa is Simba's dad and King of the Pridelands. He is a great king with a kind, generous heart.

Scar is Mufasa's brother and Simba's uncle. Scar was next in line to be King of the Pridelands until Simba was born. Scar is sly and should not be trusted.

Simba is the only son of Mufasa. He is the future King of the Pridelands.

Nala is Simba's friend. Every bit as rambunctious as Simba, Nala is ready to go wherever he does.

Rafiki is a wise, old baboon. She is a shaman and teacher, guiding Simba on the right path.

Zazu is Mufasa's trusted advisor and Simba's mentor. He is always looking out for Simba's well-being.

The hyenas are Scar's army. They want him to be king.

Timon and Pumbaa are outcasts who become Simba's friends and teach him about "Hakuna Matata," which means "no worries."

Adult Simba and Adult Nala fall in love. Nala helps Simba become the king.
